

LIBRARY
3327

DELIVERED TO THE
MAY 10 1900

NEW SONGS

BY

TAUBERT.

WITH GERMAN AND ENGLISH WORDS.

FARMER AND THE DOVES. { Soprano.
Alto.
THE BOLD RIDER.
LITTLE JACOB.
CRADLE SONG.
NOW THE SUN HIS JOURNEY ENDED.

BOSTON
OLIVER DITSON & CO.

New York: C. H. DITSON & CO.
(Successors to J. L. PUTNAM.)

Chicago: LYON & HEALY.

Phila.: J. E. DITSON & CO.
(Successors to LEE & WALKER.)

Cincinnati: DORMEYER & NEWHALL.

Copyright, 1875, by OLIVER DITSON & Co.

NOW THE SUN, HIS JOURNEY ENDED.

3

(CRADLE SONG.)

(WIEGENLIED.)

R. Reinick.

English words by E. S. WILLCOX.

W. TAUBERT.

Andantino con moto.

1. { Now the sun, his journey end.ed, Says, "the day is done;" "Go to bed and { Son - ne hat sich müd ge - lau - fen, spricht: "Nun lass ich's sein!" Geht zu Bett und

2. { Bir - die in the tree - top singing Chirps more soft and low, If the tree will { Vo - gel, der im Baum ge - sun - gen, spricht: "Was soll das sein? Will das Bäumchen slumber sweetly, Go now every one, one, one, one, one! My ba - by does as schliesst die Au - gen und schläft ruhig ein. Sum sum sum sum. Mein Kindchen macht es rock no longer, I will rest al - so, so, so, so, so, My ba - by does as nicht mehr rauschen, schlafe ich ruhig ein? Sum sum sum sum. Mein Kindchen macht es o - thers do, My babe is sleep-y too. See, the lit - tle rustling branches

 e - ben - so, mein Kindchen ist nicht dumm! Bäumchen, das noch e - ben rauschte

o - thers do, My babe is sleep-y too. Lit - tle rab - bit in the clo - ver, e - ben - so, mein Kindchen ist nicht dumm! Hä - chen spitzt die lan - gen Oh - ren,

Nod and whisper low, If the sun will shine no lon-ger We will rest al-spricht: Was soll das sein? Will die Son-ne nicht mehr scheinen, schlaf' ich ru-hig Harks and answers low, If the bir-die stops his sing-ing I will rest al-spricht: Was soll das sein? Hör' ich kei-nen Vo-gel sin-gen, schlaf' ich ru-hig

so, so, so, so, so, My ba-by does as o-thers do, My babe is sleepy ein! Sum sum sum sum Mein Kindchen wacht es e-ben-so, mein Kindchen ist nicht
 so, so, so, so, so, My ba-by does as o-thers do, My babe is sleepy
ein! Sum sum sum sum Mein Kindchen wacht es e-ben-so, mein Kindchen ist nicht too, Too, too, too, too, too, My babe is sleepy too.

dumm, sum sum sum sum sum sum, mein Kindchen ist nicht dumm. 3. { Now, his horn no too, Too, too, too, too, too, My babe is sleepy too. { Jä-ger hü-ret dumm, sum sum sum sum sum sum, mein Kindchen ist nicht dumm.

lon-ger winding, Huntsman mutters low, If the rab-bit seeks his bur-row auf zu bla-sen, spricht: Was soll das sein? Seh' ich kei-nen Ha-sen lau-fen,

pp

I will rest al - so, so, so, so, so, Moon at last comes sly - ly peep - ing, schlaf ich ru - hig ein! Sum, sum, sum, sum! Kommt der Mond und guckt her un - ter.

Smiles and says, ho! ho! No huntsman calls, no rab - bit leaps, No bir - die peeps, no spricht: Was soll das sein? Kein Jä - ger lauw! Kein Häschen springt? Kein Vo - gel singt? Kein

pp

leaf - let falls, The sun all gone! And lit - tle ba - by wakes a lone! No, Blümchen rauscht? Kein Sonnen - schein? Unds Kind al - lein sollt' wach noch sein? Nein, p

pp

no, no, no, Now, dar - ling, close your lit - tle eyes, Dear ba - by, slumber nein, nein, nein! Lieb' Kindchen macht die Au - gen zu, Lieb' Kindchen schläft schon pp poco rit.

too, Too, too, too, too, too, too, My ba - by slum - bers too.
 ein, sum, sum, sum, sum, sum, sum, mein Kind - chen schläft schon ein.

pp poco rit.

D 16370

CHOICE GEMS FROM DITSON & CO'S LATEST LISTS OF NEW MUSIC.

VOCAL.

"Must we then meet as Strangers," PRICE
J. R. THOMAS . . 40

A charming ballad—perfect in every respect. It is written in the best style of this favorite writer whose songs are household words. Its title-page is adorned with an elegant lithograph, taken from Millais' famous picture, "Yes or No." The beautiful girlish face of the frontispiece will arrest your attention; the tender, flowing melody will capture your heart. The song has won a speedy success, and is bound to become one of the great songs of the time. Soprano or tenor in A flat; alto or baritone in F.

"Golden Hours," J. R. THOMAS . . 40

Another new song by Mr. Thomas. The sentiment is bright and happy, and the musical setting very attractive. The title carries a fine lithographic likeness of Mr. Thomas which will be highly treasured by his countless admirers.

"Let Me Dream again," ARTHUR SULLIVAN . . 40

"One of a thousand." A thoroughly good song, worthy of the reputation of the author of "Hush thee, my baby," "Little Maid of Arendsee," "Looking Back," &c. &c. (Alto or baritone in key of C, soprano or tenor in key of E flat.)

"Brown eyes has that Little Maiden,"
GEO. L. OSGOOD . . 35

A bright, joyous little song, merry and winsome. As an encore song it is exceedingly effective. Alto or baritone in A, soprano or tenor in C.

"One Hundred Years Ago,"
ED. E. RICE . . 40

"We fought and fell, and ages tell the story which you know,
Of how the sun of glory rose one hundred years ago."

A rousing Centennial song which will be in great demand.

"I Hear the Banjo Play," H. P. DANKS . . 30

"Katie, the Rose of Kildare," " . . 30

"Angels Whisper Sweet Good Night,"
H. P. DANKS . . 40

Three new songs by Mr. Danks, in different styles, but showing the remarkable versatility of this well known writer. The first is in the "Log Cabin" style, the second is a charming Irish ballad; and the third is a song of the day, like the same author's "Silver Threads," "Little Darling," "Little Bright Eyes," &c. All bid fair to be popular, and can be heartily recommended.

"My Sailor Boy," CHAS. E. PRATT . . 50

"Blow gently, fresh'ning gales, Good angels hover round."

A fine inspiring song by the author of "Golden Locks are silver now," "Spring gentle Spring," Waltz, &c.

INSTRUMENTAL.

"Red Cross March," G. D. WILSON . . 75

A bright, thrilling march, full of fire and spirit, which will be welcomed by the lovers of brilliant piano-forte music. It is of heavier calibre than the previous compositions of Mr. Wilson, the "Shepherd Boy," "Night in June," "Memory," &c. but is no way inferior. It is embellished with a magnificent title in colors, and will, with Mr. Thomas' song above mentioned, be displayed at the Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia as the best product of American skill in lithographic titles. The March is dedicated to "My Brother Sir Knights of Washington Commandery No. 33, K. T."

"Pride of our Home," G. D. WILSON . . 60

A nocturne for piano, in the style of the "Summer Idyll." It is graceful, effective, and of medium difficulty.

"Centennial March," MACK . . 50

"Memorial March," " . . 50

Two new marches by this famous march writer, whose "Grant's March" and "Nellie Grant's Wedding March" have run through numberless editions. The above are in Mr. Mack's happiest vein, and are besides of value, as they contain superb views of the Exposition Buildings.

"Bella Waltz," G. LAMOTHE . . 50

A delightful, fascinating waltz, not difficult, but extremely pleasing and melodious. It sets all hearers dancing, and is also a charming piano piece.

POPULAR SONGS OF THE DAY.

"Put my Little Shoes away," C. E. PRATT (Lithograph) 40

"Sweet Dreams of Childhood," S. T. WHITE " 40

"I want to see Mamma once more," CHARLEY ROSS (Lith.) 40

"What the Candle told was True," (Ans. to popular song) 35

POPULAR COMIC SONGS.

"Pull down the Blind," McCARNEY . . 30

"If I only knew her Name," W. H. BROCKWAY (Picture) 40

"Tommy make room for your Auntie," (Lithograph) . . 40

PUBLISHED BY

OLIVER DITSON & CO., BOSTON.

CHAS. H. DITSON & CO.,
943 BROADWAY, N.Y.

DOBMEYER & NEWHALL,
CINCINNATI

LYON & HEALY,
CHICAGO.

J. E. DITSON & CO.,
922 CHESTNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA.